

EACH LIFE

That each life is a Jewel,

Which in some unique way has shined.

And, in it's shining has blessed others and the very World itself.

That each life has an appointed divine purpose and expression.

That each life is a full embrace of essence and expression.

Which we are all very lucky and fortunate to have been blessed in knowing.

Each Jeweled Life is forever.

Each life somehow touches us from that eternal place.

If we just open our hearts...

We'll feel a glimpse of that Spirit of Eternity.

Eternity's Jewel is everywhere to be seen, felt, and

It is.

Feel it now.

Feel it for eternity.
