

GRADUATION IS . . .

a time of celebration for hard work done.
A time of leaving.
An end.

GRADUATION IS . . .

only a step on the journey of life's way.
A time for entering a new life.

GRADUATION IS . . .

not the end,
it is another beginning in a series of beginnings and endings.
For each day has within it a time of beginning and also
a time of ending...or graduation, as it were.

THE ULTIMATE GRADUATION IS . . .

to live fully in the Now. This is the secret of happiness.

NOW IS . . .

the precious time from which we never graduate. All there really is, is Now. When you get to later it will still be Now!
Your next task is simply to live each moment fully in the Now, as it is.
There is no degree for this course, "GRADUATION 101", except
a High Degree of Joy.

GRADUATION THEN BECOMES . . .

something to do every day. To leave and also start anew.
To graduate to a new level of being in the Now and an inner knowing that Life can only be lived in the Now.

THIS is all done through an Inner Graduation with no grades given or robes worn. It is gained through stillness and gentle listening. Writings will never capture its essence. They are, at best, approximations about something which can only be felt or known and can never be expressed. Being in the Now can not be taught, it can only be learned.

It is Now time to Graduate, in the real sense of the word.

Good Luck and Love to You!

Graduation Is . . . POEMTRY & ODDE: Copyright 1993 by Philip E. Friberg, Clown Prince, Wizard Corporation of America, Important Stuff Division. [Written for anyone graduating from one level to the next, anytime anywhere]